

A New Frog at the Pond

The bell atop Frog Pond Church's historic chapel in Wilsonville will soon ring in celebration for a new pastor. Reverend Amos Smith was unanimously elected and will take his place as pastor Sunday, March 7th 2010.

Rev. Smith comes to town from Eastern Washington with ten years of experience as a pastor with the United Church of Christ and as a former small business owner. His love of playing the guitar and his experience with supporting and enhancing church programs make him a welcome addition. His favorite piece of scripture is 1 John 3:14: "We know that we have passed from death to life because we love one another." Rev. Smith is currently moving into a new Wilsonville home with his wife and two young children.

Frog Pond Church (Officially known as Meridian United Church of Christ) is part of the UCC denomination and the Progressive Christianity movement. The church is Open and Affirming, welcoming everyone regardless of age, race, sexual orientation, etc.
